Greetings From Your Director

Hey everybody, As the summer is winding down I hope everyone has a chance to get some good riding in. Our chapter picnic turned out to be a great time with good food, games, and a ride. I want to thank all those who helped planned the day and to Kutters for once again donating prizes. I also want to thank Chrandra Speich for organizing the food trailer for Hot Rods and Harleys that was held at Kutters in Monroe.

Our next big event will be Cheese Days Sept 15-17. I hope everyone will sign up to sell raffle tickets as we need all the help we can get. Sign up sheets are at Kutters and also at the next meeting which will be Sept 13.

Kutters fall open house will be Sat , Sept 23. We will be needing many volunteers for the food trailer, selling bike raffle tickets and 50/50 tickets all day. Sign up sheets are again at Kutters and at the next meeting.. Hope to see many volunteers new and old...This will also be the day we give the bike away.. Hope to see everyone at the next meeting..

Live to Ride,
Ride to Live

Fuzzy

On September 9th in JANESVILLE it's the 10th annual Rudi Kutter Hot Rods and Harley National Open house! We need members there to sell tickets for our bike raffle. No sign up is necessary, just show up!

We will have tickets available, we need to get them sold to support Big Brother & Sisters! Thanks in advance for your cooperation!

MINUTE BY MINUTE.....

August 13th, 2006 Meeting Minutes

A short and sweet meeting of the Swiss Valley HOG Chapter was held at Kutter at 10:30 AM Sunday, August 13. Following the meeting, we will be having a scenic ride through the Green County countryside, which was planned by Dennis and Diane Holcomb. We will be arriving back at Pleasant View Park around noon for the 1st Annual HOG Picnic, fun and games. Diane McCarten volunteered to organize the picnic activities. Thank You Diane!

Director Fuzzy Karlen stated he was approached by Kutter regarding the HOG Chapter selling food out of the Flamer Thrower for a bike night promotion on August 15. Chandra offered to scramble and get things organized to get things organized on short notice. Thank you Chandra! The HOG Chapter will also be setting up to sell bike raffle tickets that night.

Fuzzy reminded us that Cheese Days will be another opportunity for us to sell bike raffle tickets. Sign up sheet will be at Kutter if you can help out the weekend of Sept. 16-17.

The Fall Open House at Kutter is scheduled for Saturday, September 23. The HOG Chapter will be serving food out of the Flame Thrower, as well as selling 50/50 raffle tickets and bike raffle tickets. We will be giving the bike away that day, so this is our last big drive to sell LOTS of tickets. We will need volunteers for food, 50/50 ticket sales and raffle ticket sales - that's it! Sign up sheet is at Kutter if you can help out. We are again asking for a donation for bars or cookies for the food trailer as we have in the past. This makes our "Meal Deal" a real hit. Thank you for your support!

Mike and Lori Foulker are putting together plans for the Fall Overnight Ride scheduled for October 14 & 15. They are planning on riding to the Black River Falls area.

Respectfully submitted by your
HOG Secretary,
Kathy Rindy

ACTIVITY CORNER

We sure have had some nice riding weather and hopefully there will be lots more beautiful fall riding around the corner. We still have a few more dinner rides coming. They are always enjoyable. Don't forget about our Fall Overnight Ride being planned by Mike and Lori Foulker. The fall colors in the Black River Falls area on October 14 & 15 should be great. Makes plans to join us.

Activities Director,

Leroy Rindy

HOG PICNIC THANK YOU'S!!!

Thanks to Diane McCarten for organizing the picnic and games. Thanks to Kutter for donating prizes. Thanks to Dennis and Diane Holcomb for planning the ride around scenic Green County. Thanks to Fuzzy for cooking yummy New York Strip Steaks for the entire group. It was a fun day! Thank You - Thank You - Thank You !!
